5 BILLIONS ARE NEEDED BY GOVT.
SECY. GLASS SAYS

Estimates Propose Expenditure Five Times Larger Than Peace Year.

BUDGET IS GIVEN FOR DEPARTMENT DURING 1921

More Than Billion Is Needed For Interest On War Debt.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The record billion dollar congress of ordinary peace times faded into the past today when Secretary Glass, presenting the annual estimates, proposed appropriations of practically five billion dollars for conducting the peace time activities of the government during the fiscal year 1921. According to these figures it will cost more than five times as much to conduct the peace time affairs of government as it did in the year immediately preceding the world war.

The greatest individual estimates for expenditures, of course, go to the army and navy. The yearly interest on the war debt, however, is $1,107,500,000, which sum alone is greater than all the appropriations for all purposes what so ever of any peace time congress.

All in all, the estimates justify the predictions made on the floor of congress, during consideration of the time bills that the government conducted at an expense of less than four billions a year. Among estimated appropriations were:

Army, $989,578,657.30.

Navy, $542,044,830.

Public Works, $315,000,000.

Post Office, $283,921,810.17.

Miscellaneous, $333,717,637.96.

Estimates for rivers and harbor appropriations included:

Ohio river below Pittsburgh, $5,436,000.

Pittsburgh harbor, $6,000; Toledo, Ohio, $35,000; Sandusky, $60,000; Lorain, $10,000.

MAY LIMIT DEPT.
OF OHIO CITIES
BY STATE LAW

Joint Taxation Committee Urges Passage of Such Law—Would Make it a Part of Constitution.

Columbus, Dec. 1.—If the legislature which reconvenes this evening after a six months recess, accepts the recommendation of the joint taxation committee relative to the debt limitation cities will be limited in the amount of debts they may incur to 4 1/2 per cent of their real estate duplicate.

Chairman Parrett of the joint committee announced today that this percentage has been tentatively agreed upon by the committee and without doubt it will be the final recommendation to the legislature. A tentative limitation on the debt of cities has been practically agreed upon for counties. The township limitation has not been worked out.

Though it has not been definitely determined, it is expected that the recommendations will be incorporated into a constitutional amendment which will be submitted to the voters for approval at the November election this fall. Uselessness of making them statutory is said to have been demonstrated by the Longworth act which has been in operation as a debt restraint for several years, but which is practically useless because of the numerous laws of government which permit debts to be incurred outside its limitations. Under a constitutional provision, the limitations prescribed in it could never be overridden by an individual act.

In cities such as Lorain and Niles, where the proposed 4 1/2 per cent limitation already has been exceeded, some provision will be made, it is said, to limit future indebtedness. It is said that total indebtedness soon will be brought within the 4 1/2 per cent limitation. After getting within the proposed limitation it then will be impossible to go beyond it again.

The joint committee may be ready to introduce the graduated automobile license tax law this evening, Chairman Parrett said, or if not today, tomorrow. Other proposed taxation measures including an income tax law, aid for weak school districts, and the debt limitation amendment probably will be ready for introduction by the middle of the week.

James A. White, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, said the proposed prohibition enforcement measure has not been agreed upon yet. He is expected to discuss the measure with the temperance committee of both houses tonight or tomorrow. It is understood that dry leaders may recommend a bill following closely the federal enforcement act.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO HELP MINE COAL

Pittsburgh, Kas., Dec. 1.—Wearing army uniforms many of which bore insignias of overseas divisions, the first contingent of the volunteer workers who were to dig coal in the strip pit mines of the Pittsburgh field arrived here early today.

REDFORD MILLS RUNNING.

New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 1.—Union trouble operative since threatened last week to strike today to enforce wage demands, remained at work pending further negotiations with the cotton manufacturers.

IF BREAK COMES WITH MEXICO
U. S. WILL SIEGE BORDER TOWNS

Map shows U. S. army posts along frontier and principal Mexican border cities.

Many thousands of American troops are lined up along the Mexican frontier, ready to cross the border and seize Mexican border cities in case of a break between the Washington and Mexico City governments. It is the general opinion that in case of a break the places to be occupied will be Nogales, Juarez, Piedras Negras, Nuevo Laredo and Matamoros. Regularly established army posts along the international boundary now total more than two score, with probably as many more out-post positions, each accommodating a troop of cavalry or an infantry platoon.

GOVERNORS WOULD DISTRIBUTE COAL
EQUALLY IN 48 STATES OF UNION

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Further stringent rules for conservation of fuel supplies, made necessary by the strike of bituminous coal miners who have now been idle a month were in effect today over virtually the entire country between Ohio and the Rocky Mountains and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Regional fuel committees took control of coal stocks in many states and non-essential industries continued to close down because of lack of fuel, while the hours for operating stores, restaurants and office buildings were curtailed.

In Kansas City, Mo., and Omaha and Lincoln, Neb., all schools were closed today and officials of many other cities discussed the advisability of closing the schools until the fuel shortage is relieved.

Reports today from the large bituminous fields of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania gave no assurance that the union miners intended to accept the offer of an increase of 14 per cent in wages made by the federal fuel administration. Neither was there any indication that local settlements would be effected between miners and operators.

In West Virginia union officials asserted that most organized mines in that state have given no assurance that the operators would be idle today. The operators, however, claimed the output in the New River district would be increased during the week.

Governors of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Tennessee and a representative of the governor of Kansas who met here yesterday in response to a call issued by Governor Gardner of Mississippi to discuss means for ending the threatened coal famine, recommended to the federal government that a fuel administrator be appointed in each state to have full charge of distribution of all coal available for his use.

GUNMEN SHOOT POLICE SERGEANT

Is Third Cleveland Officer to Be Killed This Year—Hold Three Suspects For Crime.

Cleveland, Dec. 1.—Three men were held at police headquarters this morning charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of police sergeant William C. Isaac in a cafe shortly after midnight when Sergeant Isaac and another officer attempted to search the men for concealed weapons.

The men arrested in a house in east Twenty-second street by police shortly after the shooting. The fourth man, who also escaped from the cafe after the shooting, was being held for investigation, but police believe he just accidentally encountered the three others and had no part in any of the activities.

Sergeant Isaac is the third policeman to be killed here this year.

The three men held are Carl Iverson, said to have come from Bradfield, Pennsylvania to work in the steel mills; James Walsh, a boarder at Iverson's home; and Earl Moore.

Iverson, according to the police, is said by the other two to have actually fired the shot which killed the policeman.

32,000 GERMANS LEAVE ALSACE; SOME EXPELLED

Paris, Saturday, Nov. 29.—More than 32,000 Germans left Alsace during the French government's recent campaign to stamp out disturbing propaganda according to the Lausanne Gazette. Statistics show that up to the end of October 2800 Germans were expelled, 18,500 left voluntarily and 4800 German railroad employees were repatriated.

In addition about 6000 not included in these statistics left under various conditions and 12,000 remained in Alsace on November 1.

These figures cover only Alsace, but the French government's efforts are being continued in both that province and in Lorraine.

MINISTERS QUIT TO BECOME COPS

Fife, Scotland, Nov. 29.—It was stated at a meeting of the United Free Presbytery here that in western Scotland ministers were leaving the church and joining the police force on account of the smallness of their stipends.

CONGRESS OPENS
REGULAR SESSION
AT NOON MONDAY

Senate Adjourns Few Minutes Later Until Noon Tuesday.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE WILL BE DELIVERED THEN

Senator Cummins Wants Early Action On Pending Rail Bill.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The Sixty-Sixth congress met today in its first regular session, which it expected to continue to just before the Presidential election next fall. There was a large attendance both in the senate and house when the gavels of Vice President Marshall and Speaker Gillette fell promptly at noon.

In accord with an agreement reached between Republican and Democratic leaders before the session opened, the usual formality of naming a committee to notify the President that congress was in session was dispensed with, because of the President's illness. An informal communication of notification was drafted and dispatched instead.

Fifty-five senators answered to their names while approximately 300 members of the house were present. The crowds in senate and house galleries however, were smaller than usual at an opening session.

Chairman Cummins of the senate interstate commerce committee, announced that tomorrow he would call up the pending railroad bill and ask the senate to give it right of way until disposed of.

Senator Thomas, Democrat of Colorado, suggested that the senate begin work at once on the rail road or other business, but after a session lasting 23 minutes the senate, by a vote of 44 to 13, adopted a motion to adjourn until noon tomorrow, when the annual message from the President is expected to be received.

MOORE PLANT TO MOVE TO NEWARK
LATE THIS MONTH

Loan of $10,000 to Moore Tool and Machine Company Results In Landing Larger Industry

Newark is to be the future of the Moore Manufacturing company of Indianapolis. Otto Moore of the company was in Newark Saturday and concluded arrangements for moving his company to Newark the first of the year.

The moving of the Moore plant to Newark, E. L. Leach manager of the Chamber of Commerce stated today, as the direct result of the loaning of the $10,000 from the industrial fund to the Moore Tool and Machine company of which Mr. Moore is president.

The money will be again be added to the industrial fund to be used in securing other industries.

As soon as the work is completed on machines they will be removed from the Indianapolis plant and shipped to Newark. The plant of the local Moore company is some unused floor space and the machines will be set there. Others will be stored here, until buildings can be provided.

The local company has increased to four times its present size, and the space will accommodate 200 men.

According to Mr. Leach the company has not been running to capacity owing to lack of floor space. The lease for the Indianapolis building expires January 1 and the company will be out by that time.

Under the present plan contemplated by the company it will increase the capitalization and sell stock, enabling it to turn back at once to the industrial fund of the Chamber of Commerce the $10,000 borrowed by the Moore Tool and Machine works for the building and the money will again be added to the industrial fund to be used in securing other industries.

YEGGS GET $2300.

Cincinnati, Dec. 1.—A binding and blindfolding, Edward Reed, night watchman at the Duttenhofer building and his wife early today, six crackmen placed their helpless couple in the vault of an insurance company and blew the safe and a vault in the offices of the Southern Railway system on the fourth floor of the structure. They obtained $300 and Liberty bonds, valued at $2,000.

ITALIANS SEND TROOPS TO ZARA

Great Activity Reported In Fiume By Serbian Press Bureau—Fleet Will Occupy Zebinco.

Belgrade, Dec. 1.—Great activity prevails at Fiume. A destroyer left there Sunday, presumably for Zara, according to the Serbian press bureau. The merchant vessel, Adria followed with 1000 shock troops.

Reports from Fiume stated that "Admiral" Rizzo commander of the D'Annunzio fleet there has gone on board a destroyer and proposes occupying Zebinco.

WILL BE DEPORTED
WITHOUT MORE ADO

Alexander Berkman.

It has been announced in Washington that Alexander Berkman, who has been one of the leading advocates of violence since 1892, will be deported without further delay, to the land where he was born and whose terrorist principles he preaches. Berkman is a Russian and has never been naturalized. His deportation is authorized under an act of congress providing for the return to their native countries of aliens convicted of obstructing the progress of the war.

HEAVY WIND
CAUSES DAMAGE

Limbs Blown Down, Telephone Poles Laid Low and Trees Are Blown Across Interurban Tracks

The wind storm in Newark Saturday seemed bent on playing wilful pranks rather than to cause serious damage.

Umbrellas were turned inside out, hats were nipped off and carried long distances as their owners raved after them. One had to get the clothes prop from a nearby house to rescue her new winter hat from a tree, where the wind had lodged it.

It is hoped that the downfall of the rooster on the Advocate building does not foreshadow disaster for the old Danbury in the future. But the wind took him sailing through the air and the supporting rod barely missed striking Mrs. Kussmaul, who was walking in West Main street.

The Newark telephone company had five or six poles down and some wires blown down in the city. The Ohio Power company, did not suffer any damage but the traffic on the Ohio Electric road was delayed for about three hours late Saturday afternoon.

Trees had blown across the wires near White City tearing them down and they had to be restrung before travel was resumed.

The wind carried dead limbs and branches of trees up and down the streets, until walking was a danger. The balmy zephyr spring like in its intensity early in the day, Saturday turned to a cold wind with cyclonic propensity. The thermometer took a tumble Saturday night and Sunday the wind cut like a knife.

TEXTILE MILLS IDLE
DEMAND WAGE BOOST

Fall River, Mass., Dec. 1.—Virtually all the textile mills in this city, employing 38,000 operatives, were tied up by a strike for a 25 per cent increase in wages.

The demands were made by six of the National Amalgamation of Textile Operatives, numbering approximately 7,000; and their leadership was largely followed by the unorganized workers.

RAIL STRIKE IS ENDED ABRUPTLY

Kansas City, Dec. 1.—As suddenly as it began Saturday the strike of 1500 railroad switchmen in the local yards was called off early today.

The action was taken at a secret meeting which began yesterday and lasted far into the night, when it was understood a proposition sponsored by more conservative members of the unions, to end the walkout, was put to a vote and carried.

Early this morning a delegation of strikers appeared at the office of W. M. Corbett, general manager of the Kansas City terminal railroad and indicated the men were ready to return to work.

Reasons for the decision were not forthcoming, but it was understood that an announcement at the meeting by G. W. Anderson, of Cleveland, a vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, that the strike was unauthorized and that the strike benefits would be withheld, had much to do with the final action.

Disatisfaction with the present wage scale and with the outcome of the recent conference of the national union of officials in Cleveland was responsible for the strike, it is said. The two-day walkout paralyzed freight shipping in the local yards.

LATEST MEXICAN NOTE IS NOT AN ULTIMATUM;
CHARGES INDIFFERENCE

CARRANZA GOVERNMENT IS CONDEMNED FOR ITS ATTEMPT TO ENSNARE JENKINS IN LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

CHARGED WITH DIVERTING ATTENTION OF AMERICANS FROM LAWLESSNESS

Request Is Renewed For Immediate Release of Consular Agent Held In Puebla Prison on Trumped Up Charge.

El Paso, Tex., Dec. 1.—An unverified report was current here today that William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, Mexico, had been liberated from jail. Andres G. Garcia, consul general for Mexico here said he had heard the report but no verification of the rumor had been received.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Renewing its request for the immediate release of Consular Agent Jenkins, imprisoned at Puebla, the latest American note to Mexico, made public here today, arraigns the Mexican government's actions in severe terms and characterizes it as a studied attempt to ensnare the American consular agent in the intricacies of legal proceedings.

No ultimatum was served and no indication was given of what the American government's course would be if Jenkins is not immediately released.

The note says, the only conclusion this government can draw is that Mexico has made a studied effort to ensnare Jenkins in legal intricacies, divert the attention of the American and Mexican people both from the fact that the second largest city in Mexico is overrun by bandits, and that the Mexican authorities have been negligent.

"It appears," says the note, "to have been the purpose of the Mexican government to assume a wilful indifference to the feelings of the American people that have been aroused to the point of indignation by the exposure, hardships and physical suffering by Jenkins during his abduction and his subsequent treatment at the hands of the Mexican authorities."

"This government does not admit, the note says, that it is necessary to keep Jenkins in jail while his case is being investigated and this government 'fails to discern' that 'intricacies of the Mexican penal law' have been applied with impartial effect to Jenkins."

The Mexican government cannot argue that it cannot interfere with the judicial processes of a state unless there has been a denial of justice, the American note argues, because of Jenkins' detention there already has been a denial of justice, and the Mexican constitution extends the power of the federal government to "all cases concerning consular officers."

The United States is not to be driven "by such subtle arguments," says the note, "into a defense of its request for the release of Mr. Jenkins, it is for Mexico to show cause for this detention for the United States to show cause for his liberation."

Then the note says "stripped" of extraneous matter with which the Mexican note of November 29 endeavors to cloak it, the naked case of Jenkins stands forth. The note then reviewed the history of the case and takes up the argument.

Jenkins was imprisoned for "rendering false testimony" in connection with the abduction of which he was the victim, says the note.

"In whose interest is the charge of false swearing brought against Jenkins," asks the note, "His abductors? The Mexican government is prosecuting the victim instead of the perpetrators of the crime."

"While the outlaws who endangered his life and took away a large part of his fortune are in the freedom of the Mexican authorities now deprive Jenkins of his liberty."

That Jenkins is supposed to be guilty of rendering false testimony, the note says, is merely an opinion of the Mexican government, "entirely unsupported by evidence."

"The Mexican government," says the American note, "cannot expect the United States to accept in the grave circumstances of this case such a bare unsupported statement as a valid excuse." Jenkins, weak and exhausted in a hospital, the note says, has been harassed by the Mexican authorities while in custody and his case was obtained through intimidation of witnesses.

KANAWHA MINES REMAIN IDLE

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 1.—Operation in the New River coal fields continued today. The mine in Kanawha district remained closed. Operators said the miners in the latter district apparently had no intention of returning to work.

E. L. Lewis, secretary of the New River Coal Operators association, said today he was confident of the mines achieving a greater tonnage record this week, which averaged 80 percent normal.

Union leaders in the Kanawha district had no statement to make regarding the situation in their territory, having adopted a "hands off" attitude. They neither encourage the miners to return to work nor do they deny trying to keep the men from continuing the strike.

ATTEMPT TO OPERATE ON NON-UNION BASIS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 1.—For the first time in more than a generation, an attempt was made today to operate a non-union mine in the Kanawha district. The mine was operated by a group of miners who had been expelled from the union.

PEPTO-MANGAN BRINGS BLOOM OF HEALTH

Helps Restore Worn-Out, Thin Blooded Men and Women to Health and Happiness.

Physicians Recommend It

Sold in Liquid and Tablet Form Both Possess Same Medicinal Value—Insist on "Gude's"

Most every case of a sallow complexion and a languid feeling is traceable to watery, impoverished blood deficient in oxygen-carrying red blood cells. Inasmuch as the entire system depends on the blood for its nourishment and strength, it is readily understood why thin-blooded people always feel worn-out and run-down.

And it is equally plain that to restore the vigor of rugged health, the blood should be supplied with the needed qualities to enable it to build up the system. Gude's Pepto-Mangan accomplishes this very result. In a short time the beneficial results are closely manifest. The cheeks fill out and regain the bloom of health, the eyes sparkle, the step regains its elasticity, the whole system is filled with greater vitality.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is a safe, beneficial and pleasant tonic. Agrees with the most delicate stomach, and is obtainable in either liquid or tablet form. Be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package when you buy Pepto-Mangan. Ask the druggist for "Gude's." It "Gude's" is not on the package it is not Pepto-Mangan.—Adv.

CITY'S GROWTH IS UP TO CITIZENS

West Newark Pastor Says Character of Residents Influences Development of Town.

"Our Home Town", a talk along civic lines and what is required to make a town worth while, by Rev. E. W. Thornton, attracted a large congregation to the West Side Church of Christ Sunday evening.

Several of the officers and members of the Chamber of Commerce attended and Rev. Mr. Thornton called the attention of the audience to the opportunities afforded by Newark and stated that the development of a town depended upon the character of the residents. Special services were also held at Trinity Episcopal church at 10:30 o'clock when the parish service flag was "demobilized." The flag contained 24 stars, including one gold star. Archdeacon Dodson talked on "The Foundations of American Liberty."

Charles Y. M. C. A. men, E. S. Randolph, A. R. Evans, and C. F. Lender talked before the Sunday evening service of the First Presbyterian church, telling of their experiences at the recent Y. M. C. A. convention in Detroit.

PRINTER ADMITS

rants have been issued by Judge Sessions.

Among those named in Saturday's announcement of the indictments were W. A. Hopkins of St. Clair, Michigan, assistant secretary of the United States Senate; John S. Newberry, brother of the senator, Detroit; and Paul H. King of Detroit. King was manager of the Newberry campaign committee.

Government officials asserted that the testimony presented to the grand jury had revealed a political scandal that in many respects was without parallel in American annals. They said it extended from the most populous wards of Detroit to the Indian reservations, where aborigines were voted according to the behest of the Newberry campaign organization.

It was alleged that voters were bribed, election board corrupted, editors subsidized and moving picture theaters bought up in the endeavor to defeat Henry Ford first in the primaries of both parties and later, when he had won the Democratic nomination, in the election itself.

Officials were secretive as to how the alleged conspiracy was uncovered, but a general outline of their methods was made available. It was revealed that an attempt was made to repeat the suspected tactics of the Newberry campaign. Under this plan, a corps of investigators was sought to handle the money in given wards or towns. The next grade of political leaders was then approached and by this method, it was stated, a clear trail was blazed to the "higher ups."

When brought into the grand jury room and confronted with accurate accounts of their conversations with the agents, the men generally, it was said, repeated their stories.

The government's legal experts, headed by Mr. Dailey, Mr. Dalesout of Grand Rapids, a former assistant district attorney and Oliver Pagan, indictment expert for the department of justice, took both state and federal laws as the basis for the indictments.

The federal corrupt practices act of 1910 limits the expenditures of senatorial candidates to $10,000 and requires that four statements be filed with the secretary of the senate, one preceding and following the primary and then the election. The Newberry affidavit cited in the second indictment was filed in correspondence with this act.

The second federal corrupt practices act which the indictments alleged was violated was passed in October, 1918. It made bribery of voters a crime after several federal courts held that such an act was not an offense against the laws of the United States.

The state laws were brought in because the act of 1910 provides that if state limits campaign expenditures to less than the $10,000 named in that act, then the state law shall apply to campaigns within that commonwealth. The Michigan statutes limit campaign expenditures to a fourth of the yearly salary of the position sought for each primary or election campaign.

The law forbidding use of the mails to defraud was applied to the Newberry case as probably covering various letters sent to campaign contributors, which letters, it was charged, were worded so as to deceive the recipients as to the amounts already collected by the Newberry treasury.

The charges of probable defense that Senator Newberry was ignorant of the amount of money and its sources used in his campaign, the government intends to use a statement issued by the senator's managers shortly after the first rumors of corruption began to be heard. This statement showed receipts of $178,858 and expenditures of $176,568. Of the contributions, John S. Newberry, the senator's brother, was credited with $89,000; A. Victor James, of Newark, president of the American Book company, and a brother of Mrs. Truman Newberry, with $25,000; Henry B. Joy, of Detroit, another brother-in-law of the senator, with $25,000 and Mrs. Henry B. Joy, the senator's sister, with $10,000.

The government will attempt to show that all these persons conferred with Truman H. Newberry, while he was a candidate, thus indicating his knowledge of the campaign.

It also has a number of letters which he wrote to politicians while the campaign was on.

These circumstances were also used as a basis for the allegation of the second indictment, that there was a general conspiracy to aid the senator to obtain office illegally.

One count charges conspiracy to commit thousands of offenses against the federal act of October 1918, forbidding payment of money to voters. The sixth count alleges that certain defendants each contributed more than the total amount allowed by law.

The charge that James Holm was hired on salary and expenses to run against Ford in the Democratic primary follows, and then come accusations that Republican candidates for county offices were paid money upon the condition that they support the Newberry senatorial aspirations. The count concludes with allegations of wholesale bribery of voters, election boards, and other officials.

London, Dec. 1.—The forces of Admiral Kolchak, head of the anti-Russian government are retreating with such rapidity that they are unable to construct defensive work, of which there is none west of Irkutsk, says a wireless dispatch from the Soviet government at Moscow today.

Partisan bands continually harass Kolchak who has formed a body guard of 3,000 to protect himself, the dispatch adds.

Wheeling, Dec. 1.—A steel striker was killed, Sheriff W. E. Clayton of Marshall county shot and seriously wounded and a deputy and another striker suffered from gunshot wounds in a riot when a mob of strikers and their sympathizers clashed with a sheriff's posse at the gates of the River View district of the National Tube company at Benwood, near here, this morning.

POLICE SEEK IDENTITY OF MURDERED WOMAN

Cincinnati, Dec. 1.—The police and deputy sheriffs are bending every effort today to identify a strike woman who was murdered in a field near Bensenville Park just beyond the city limits early Sunday. Her murderer had made an effort to behead her victim. Meanwhile other officers are investigating clues such as a man's blood-stained handkerchief, a man's umbrella, a snuff box and light brown hairs which were clutched in the hands of the dead woman. She is apparently between 30 and 35 years old, cheaply but neatly dressed.

FOREIGN STRIKERS ARE RETURNING TO MILLS

Youngstown, Dec. 1.—Today, for the first time since September 22, there were no visible signs of a strike about the steel plant of the Mahoning Valley. No pickets were out at any of the mills and great crowds of men went to work in peace and quiet. The Poles, Croats and Russians who had been most active in the strike and most stubborn in holding out are returning and those who are out now are chiefly Slovaks. Despite the scarcity of coal, the mills maintained the same schedules as last week.

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS LEAVE PARLIAMENT

Rome, Dec. 1.—When King Victor Emmanuel entered the parliament today to deliver the speech from the throne he was received with loud cheers. Premier Nitti requested the audience to be seated. Upon this the extreme Socialists shouted:

"Viva Socialism," and left the chamber. Their seats were immediately taken by other deputies.

ASK YANKS TO DELAY RETURN.

Paris, Dec. 1.—The French representatives in the peace conference are urging the American delegates to delay the departure for home until the protocol is signed, putting in effect the peace treaty with Germany, it was learned today.

Although today was the date set for the exchange of ratifications of the treaty, no definite news was at hand regarding the intentions of the Germans as to the signing of the protocol in which they are expected to guarantee the terms of the armistice. The supreme council today adopted the terms of the reply to the recent German note regarding prisoners of war. The contents were not given out.

PRINCE REACHES ENGLAND.

Portsmouth, England, Dec. 1.—The Prince of Wales arrived here on board the British warship Renown at 9 o'clock this morning, following a visit to Canada and the United States. His vessel left this port on July 1. The entry of the Renown to the harbor brought a 21 gun salute from the flag bedecked ships which were decorated in honor of the birthday of Queen Mother Alexandra.

ITALIAN REVOLT RUMORED.
Berne, Sunday, Nov. 30.—Rumors from Italy relative to a revolution and possibly imminent abdication of King Victor Emmanuel find limited belief here. It is considered a good sign that the Italian frontier continues open.

The men released constituted two afternoon squads.

LONDON ANXIOUS TO SEE MRS. ASTOR SEATED

London, Dec. 1.—Tickets to the public gallery to the house of commons for today's session were in great demand. Hundreds thus showing their desire to see the first woman member presented in the house. It was impossible to accommodate nearly all the applicants.

Countess Georgina Markievicz, who was elected member of parliament for the St. Patrick's division of Dublin last year, but who refused to take her seat, owing to her Sinn Fein affiliations, was in London over the week end and her presence created curiosity as to whether she meant to forestall Lady Astor in taking a seat in the house of commons by making a dramatic appearance. The countess, however, went direct to Manchester, where she addressed a big Sinn Fein and it is suspected she has no intention to return to divide honors with Lady Astor.

Lady Astor's first opportunity to cast a vote will arise when a bill for premium bonds is placed before the house.

The Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt of New York, who intends to become a candidate for the first suitable vacancy in parliament has since her election to the London city council last year concerned herself largely with the question of housing the poor. She is reported to be remarkably popular among her constituents, who inhabit one of the dingiest neighborhoods in South London.

DETROIT PLANTS CLOSE AS FUEL SUPPLY FAILS

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 1.—Scores of industrial plants here and in other cities of the state are temporarily closed or their production curtailed because of the hurricane which swept across southern Michigan late Saturday, according to reports today.

Miles of electric power wires were leveled to the ground by the wind which reached velocity of 84 miles an hour here and from 70 to 80 miles at Flint, Port Huron, Grand Rapids, Pontiac and other points. Stacks of power plants were leveled at many factories and other damage done that will take days to repair.

The demoralized interurban electric railway systems in the southern portion of the state will not be returned to normal, it was stated, for several days.

Fresh tales of damage are being received as wire communication is being restored, but early today the list of deaths remained at six, five killed and one near Jackson, although hundreds are reported to have been injured by flying debris and broken glass. From all over the state come reports of buildings damaged, houses wrecked and orchards and other crops leveled.

Early reports from Lake Erie, Lake Huron and Lake Michigan points failed to show any material marine losses and Lake Superior was said to have been out of the path of the storm.

VOLUNTEER MINERS TO DRAW NEW WAGE SCALE

Pittsburgh, Kansas, Dec. 1.—Actual mining operations under the Kansas plan to reopen coal properties made idle by the miners' strike are expected to begin here today with the sending of several hundred volunteer coal diggers to the strip pits near this city.

Under the Kansas plan the mines will be run through a reconstituted board by the state supreme court with workers recruited from this and adjacent states. The volunteers and any union miners who join them will be paid the regular wage scale, plus a 14 per cent increase recently granted by Dr. H. A. Garfield, federal fuel administrator.

State officials were confident today that by the end of the week the output of coal would be sufficient to meet the demands in the state caused by the fuel famine.

Twelve hundred federal and state troops were in the coal district today for police purposes. Whether any material number of miners will accept the 14 per cent wage increase proposed by the government and return to work today was problematical. Alexander M. Howat, United Mine Workers, declared that none of the men will accept the increase.

Headley Eitt, the promoter, has arranged a card that is attracting cheering followers of southeastern Ohio. Billy Wilson of Columbus, meets Eddie Miller of Pittsburgh in the semi-final.

ADMIRATION NOT CALLED FOR

Aviator Would Very Willingly Have Foregone Gushing Tributes Paid Him by Fair Admirer.

The hardest part of flying is landing, and it is in landing that most would-be aviators come to grief. An experienced pilot who makes a bad landing and goes bouncing across a field is disgraced and usually feels the humiliation to the utmost.

Early in the war a "ladies' day" was held at an airdrome in England. Among the guests who thronged the field were many ladies in gala attire. Late in the afternoon a pilot who was a captain gave an exhibition performance. He left the ground in perfect style, did a succession of vertical turns, and a few "acrobatics," then shut off his motor to land and receive the applause that he knew was awaiting him from the fair sex.

As the machine neared the ground the captain misjudged his distance, with the result that he hit the ground hard, made a series of high jumps all the way across the field, and came at last to rest just in time to avoid crashing into a fence. He turned his machine, "taxied" to the hangar and somewhat sheepishly rejoined the guests. His fellow pilots were having a hard time to restrain themselves from laughter, and just as it appeared that they had succeeded a very fat, gushing sort of woman approached the captain and said in accents loud and clear:

"My dear captain, on behalf of the ladies present I wish to thank you for the wonderful exhibition of flying you have given us. It was truly marvelous. It was positively a beautiful thing to see; and that landing of yours—it was superb! Just like a dear little bird—hop, hop, hop, hop!"—Youth's Companion.

PLACE CHILDREN ABOVE ALL

Little Ones Have Been Aply Described as Monarchs in Homes of Serbian Parents.

The tragedy of the little children of Serbia reduced to starvation, disease and raggedness is really understood only when one comprehends the intense love of home and children that fills all Serbian hearts.

"The Serbian home is the sanctuary of Serbian life," writes Miss Wagoner, "the shrine before which the Serbian heart worships, the altar upon which the products of hand and heart are placed in simple tribute. And the guiding spirit of the home is, of course, the woman, the wife and mother. We must go farther, though, and say that while the mother may be the guiding spirit, the monarch of the home is the child. What we are preaching with renewed intensity today regarding the importance of the child, the education of the child, Serbia has long preached and endeavored to practice. Almost Spartan in its creed is the valuation placed upon a child life. The child is more than a companion to his mother, more than an heir to his father's business, lands or wealth; he is the property of the state. He is part of Serbia! Everything is sacrificed to the welfare and advancement of the child."

A HOOSIER HAIRCUT

Demas Coe, a Richmond business man and former auditor of Wayne county, has been trying to figure the difference of an Indiana and a Chicago haircut. He told the story after a business trip to Chicago and says he no longer enjoys going to a barber shop in Chicago.

Previously to making the trip, Coe went into a Richmond shop and had a shave and haircut by a barber regarded as expert as any in Richmond. After arriving in Chicago he went to a barber for his shave the next day.

"Don't you want a haircut, too?" asked the barber.

"I just got one the other day," Coe replied.

"In Indiana?" politely asked the barber.

"Yes, why?" was Coe's answer.

"Well, it looks like an Indiana haircut," was the barber's comment.

According to Coe's own story he was "considerably wrought up" by the incident as he is a loyal resident of Indiana. When he told the story to his barber in Richmond, the barber was considerably more indignant than Coe. —Indianapolis News.

EDUCATING GREEK FARMERS

American scientific agriculturists are now completing a survey of the soil possibilities of Crete in the same thorough fashion in which they surveyed the Greek mainland. American farming machinery and up-to-date methods are needed, and arrangements have been made to educate the farmers of Greece and Crete so that they can increase their yield of crops. Major C. G. Hopkins of the Illinois agricultural department, and Lieut. C. J. Bouyoucos, a native Greek educated in America, and a former instructor at Michigan agricultural college, are in charge of the American Red Cross agricultural survey of Greece and Crete.

"IT OZES OUT"

Even in statistics, as dry as a Gradgrind would have them, there is humor. "It ozes out," as Tammes Haggart would say. Austen Chamberlain, in his official capacity as chancellor of the exchequer, recently presented to the members of the British parliament a budget packed with enough figures to baffle an accountant of the first water. Giving £1,412,000,000 as the amount to which it had risen, he declared that the "floating debt" was having his "grave attention." How, it may be asked, is he regarding the "sinking fund?"

He Had One Better.

One of our honest old farmers came home and found a sewing-machine man in the house demonstrating to the women what fine work it would do. The agent asked the farmer to bring in a shingle, and said: "I will show you that the Wonder Worker machine will do heavy work, for I will stitch right across the tip of the shingle where it is at least one-sixteenth of an inch thick."

"Not interested," said the farmer. "Over 'cross here 'bout three miles northeast a young man built a house last summer, and I'll be darned if his wife didn't take her Mechanical Marvel sewin' machine and stitch on every blade course of clapboards, from gable to eaves, clean down to the sills."

As the agent slammed his machine into his light truck and chugged away, the farmer turned to his wife and said: "Well, Rita, I sewed that agent up all right, didn't I? Now let's have supper."—Bangor News.

TELEPHONE INVENTOR BUILDS 71-MILE-AN-HOUR SPEED BOAT

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell and his flying boat "H. O. 4," taken off Cape Breton Island, Canada.

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, has turned his genius to perfecting a speed boat that will literally fly over the water. His craft, named "H. O. 4," recently was given its trial spin at Cape Breton Island, Canada. The boat is capable of making seventy-one miles per hour. It is equipped with two 400 h. p. Liberty motors. The boat has a series of blades forward and aft, and on each side under the so-called wings. Nine of these blades are used in each place. As the boat gains speed the action of the water raises it so that when traveling over sixty miles an hour, the boat is practically clear of the water. In other words the boat at top speed is traveling on the last set of blades.

A lot of people are now demanding enough pay so they can afford to go out on strike.

Now the question is what would be left of old Cincinnati if they had won the world series previous to July 1?

The farmer believes in the eight hour day, only he works eight hours in the forenoon and eight in the afternoon.

Congress has worked so hard doing nothing that they really ought to adjourn November 1 for rest and refreshment.

From present indications the "Reds" will get very red in the face from the speed with which they will have to keep moving.

The fact that biscuit colored gowns are stylish does not prove that the girls can turn out a pan full of muffins for breakfast.

Color designers have planned 78 shades of color for next spring gowns, and then some people wonder why living costs are high.

The senate may not hurry up the peace treaty to save the peace of the world, but their desire to get home November 1 may speed it up some.

Public sentiment recently has been divided between the trans-continental air race and the hot air contest in the senate over the League of Nations.

The thrilling escapes from bandits highwaymen pictured in the movies have nothing on the escapes of the October wedding couples from the hands of the celebrators.

Anyone who goes shopping nowadays in the high priced stores of the big cities, need not think he can buy much if he only takes along small change like five dollar bills.

As the country's cranberry crop is reported at 637,000 barrels, it is easy to see where mother has something doing in washing the red stains out of the table cloth this winter.

All the things that have happened in this country since November 11 suggest that the American people much more easily win a victory over the Germans than one over themselves.

A large number of brilliant "intellectuals" are spending their valuable time demonstrating that you can make up the shortage of everything by limiting your production and going on strike.

Some towns are doing a lot of arguing as to which has the most beautiful girls, but they never prove it by the volume of paint sales at the drug stores. And the girls don't look a bit prettier while they are limping around from sprained ankles resulting from high heels.

The attention of the country is now centered on the question of comfortable walking conditions for the masses of the people. Much attention is given to good housing. If you can provide wage earners with comfortable homes, they are much more likely to be contented.

Another element in working conditions should not be overlooked, and that is the provision of comfortable walking conditions for the millions who walk to and from their work. If a wage earner, after his day's labor, has got to tramp to his home over a sandy footpath, or one filled with mud whenever it rains, the discomforts of his lot are going to be exaggerated to him every time he goes to and from his job.

If you lay down a good hard walk from his job to his home, he will not be so tired when he gets back. He will feel able to live a little farther out, where he can have a garden and develop some home pride.

Good sidewalks will transform a depressing, squalid, discontented neighborhood into one that is cheerful and well kept up. It is almost invariably followed by clean up work in the home places. Tree and shrub planting almost always follow side walk building.

A town that spends money on good sidewalks puts its resources into the safest possible investment. It makes the whole town look more alive, the working population becomes more contented, it replaces weariness by comfort, and it attracts strangers to become residents.

Newark ought to take hold of the "pep," as the boys say, and repair out worn walks and build some new ones. It will pay.

Unsophisticated visitors to the cities are informed that these weird looking objects coming down the streets are not animated haystacks, but merely the smart women wearing the new hip expanded gowns.

Some one wants to know what the ball players are going to do this winter. Dunno, but before this year they had to spend the off months in setting of 'em up for friends who called to express admiration of their prowess.

In the Arkansas riots it is claimed that the negroes banded together, but elsewhere their banding is mostly of the jazz kind.

League of Nations to meet at Washington? And if so, where? On the league ball grounds, of course.

There is a strong movement for vocational schools, but the kid element of Newark prefers vocational.

Well, if the roller towels are banned as unsanitary, the men still have their trousers to fall back on.

QUAKER QUIPS.
(Philadelphia Record.)
Most people develop astigmatism when it comes to seeing their own finish.

Even in attempting to paint the town red a fellow now has to use water color.

Don't give your friends away. A man is known by the company he keeps.

No, Maude, dear, liquid music doesn't necessarily come from the kettle drum.

Some difference between an optimist and a pessimist is that one believes in mascots, the other in hoodlums.

The man who attends strictly to his own business is never the one who complains of being overworked.

Some people have an idea they can't stand up for themselves without treading on other people's toes.

Sillicus—"How is it possible to tell when a girl is in love?" Cyrlus—"Oh, she is either very happy or very miserable."

Wigwag had opened the jackpot. "How many cards?" asked the dealer. "I'll play these," said Wigwag, standing pat. Even a pair of maniacs couldn't better this hand.

Even when he puts his foot in it many a man has an enormous chest expansion.

A pessimist is a person whose only thought of the future is to be prepared for the worst.

ANOTHER YEAR.

(St. Louis Republic)
Senator Lodge's talk to the effect that the day for compromises on the treaty is past and that he wishes to see the treaty, with the Lodge reservations, made the issue in the next campaign, amounts to a proposal to make a political issue out of what nearly everyone is agreed ought not to be dragged into partisan politics.

Among the Republicans, Mr. Borah's voice was almost alone, when the treaty was submitted, in demanding that the Republicans in the senate take a stand on the treaty and make a party matter of it. The party, as it is represented in the senate, refused to take Borah's advice, and, as a matter of fact, a strong minority of the Republicans disagreed with the majority of their party until the last day of the fight. Lodge is, therefore, a very late convert to the idea that the treaty is good material on which to base a party fight. It is not likely that many of his party will follow him.

If nothing further is to be done, with the treaty until after the election, then it must continue to be an open question for another year, and after that year is some the same congress that we have had last week will meet to take it up again. The congress which would be elected to deal with the matter under Lodge's suggestion would not meet in regular session until another year had gone, though it could meet after March 4, 1921, if called in extraordinary session.

If Senator Lodge really wishes to keep the treaty question open for more than a year longer, with all of the uncertainties which afflict business and the nations of the world because it is open, he is not wishing the good of his country.

But aside from this objection, the form which reservations to a long and complicated treaty should take is not a suitable thing to be voted upon in a general election. It is a matter for deliberation by trained men, and that, in the case of the treaty, means the senate of the United States. Lodge's statement that it is too late for compromise in that body can only be born of stubbornness.

It is not too late for compromise. It is time for compromise. It is time that the senators in favor of ratification asserted themselves by taking victory into their own hands and out of the hands of the little group of reconcilables like Sherman of Illinois, who maneuvered so as to entangle the senate, voted to be- devil the treaty with destructive amendments and reservations, and then voted to kill their deformed offspring.

That yesterday, November 30, was the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Cyrus West Field, the father of the Atlantic Cable? Cyrus Field was the son of a Presbyterian minister and was born at Stockbridge, Massachusetts. He started out for himself at the age of fifteen, having graduated at the Stockbridge Academy. At the age of thirty-four he had accumulated a fortune of $250,000. In 1853 he conceived the idea of the Atlantic cable, and though people slightly referred to it as "Field's dream," he secured the cooperation of Peter Cooper and other capitalists. The first attempt was made in August, 1857, but the cable broke after a small portion had been laid. On August 15, 1858, the cable was finally connected and Queen Victoria sent a message over it to President James Buchanan. But the cable soon broke again and a heavier one was made, which was laid by the Great Eastern, the largest steamship in the world. On July 23, 1865, the wire again broke 600 miles from Newfoundland. In the following year, however, success crowned the long struggle. A new cable was laid and the old one spliced. Field died July 12, 1892.

Our Boys and Girls

Christmas is the best time in all the year to unify the family group and develop more intimate and altruistic relations among the members. It does not mean that we shall give more presents or have more feasting than is now the custom. It is unquestionably a detriment, mentally and nervously, for children to be overfed with gifts. Add over indulgence in food and drink, and especially sweets, and the day that ought to be the most exhilarating and inspiring in the year becomes a tragedy of mental and physical dissipation.

Let the children have attractive food on that day, but let only one meal be a departure from the usual simplicity, that the child may go to his bed at night thinking more of the social experiences of the day than of the food he has eaten. Christmas is also a magnificent opportunity for the school to make children more social in the right sense, to give them an appreciation of their fellows, and develop in them some restraint of their selfish impulses. A child's life will be determined very largely by the adequacy with which these two great needs, alluring expectations and excitement within reason, are provided by the home, the school and the community.

Milady's Boudoir

Care of the Hands.
I have been interested in looking at the hands of people during the past year and I am really surprised at the number that have shapely hands, a much larger number than one would expect. The size of the hands, for the most part, depends upon the size of the bones which form the framework, the condition of the hands upon the muscles and the skin.

Exercise and work, which put a strain upon the muscles of the hands, develop and enlarge them. But large hands, well cared for, are not to be lamented and they are often a thing of beauty. When one is called upon to do rough labor gloves should be worn. Rubber gloves are useful for those who are obliged to have their hands in water and do much to save the hands from the roughening and reddening of such work.

Those who do their own work should be careful of their hands, not altogether because of their looks, but because of the discomfort. Housework, especially in cold weather, causes one's hands to chap and often to crack. It is a good plan to grease the hands well before drawing on the rubber gloves. Hands, to keep their whiteness and smoothness, need plenty of grease. White vaseline and almond oil, mixed together in equal parts, make a very good lubricant.

Soap, used for the hands, should not contain too much alkali and if the hands are not thoroughly dried after washing them, they will become red and dry. Glycerine is good for the hands but it should be borne in mind that it does not agree with all skins. It has a tendency to take the moisture out of the skin and, therefore, should be mixed with water when used. Half glycerine and half rose water is good to use.

Two's company, three's a crowd, which may explain why so many people have plenty of faith and hope but no charity.

Everyday Etiquette

"If a bride to be receives presents of jewels, should she wear them during the wedding ceremony?" asked Alice. There is partly a matter of taste and partly a question of who presented the jewels. It is not considered good taste for the bride to wear conspicuous jewelry during the wedding ceremony. Such jewels as are worn are usually the gift of the bridegroom or of very near or very dear friends," answered her dearest friend.

HER LIFE HAS BEEN FULL OF TRAGEDY

Mrs. Constance Schack Gracie.

Mrs. Constance Schack Gracie, prominent New York and Washington society woman, is suing to recover the fortune of her daughter, the late Mrs. Edith Temple Gracie Adams, wife of the chewing gum magnate. Mrs. Gracie, who is the daughter of the late Count Schack, has had a tragic life, losing first her younger daughter, who plunged to death down an elevator shaft; then her husband in the Titanic disaster, and now her daughter Edith.

According to Mrs. Gracie, Edith Adams repeatedly stated that she had made a will leaving her fortune, estimated at $100,000, to her mother. The present action is filed against the husband of her daughter, Mr. Adams, of Philadelphia.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" CHILD'S LAXATIVE

Look at tongue! Remove poisons from stomach, liver and bowels

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless laxative or physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels. Children love its delicious fruity taste. Full directions for child's dose on each bottle. Give it without fear.

Mother! You must say "California."

CHEST CLOGGED UP WITH HEAVY COLD?

Don't give it a chance to "set in"—use Dr. King's New Discovery

THAT dangerous stage where a cold or cough or case of croup might get the better of you may be nearer than you think. Prompt action with Dr. King's New Discovery will avert a long siege.

For fifty years it has loosened congested chests, dislodged tight-packed phlegm, broken vicious coughs and croup. Give it to the youngsters—take it yourself. There will be no disagreeable after effects. So do it now. A bottle. At your druggist's. Give it a try.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dizziness" and that lary feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

Wall Street.
New York, Dec. 1.—The week on the stock exchange began with no essential changes in the general conditions which have influenced recent operations. Aside from Anaconda Copper, which gained almost two points, and Crucible Steel, where a three point loss was immediately recovered, changes in initial transactions were limited to fractions. News over the week-end was conflicting and impending events, including the convening of congress, caused conservative financial interests to urge further caution.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Dec. 1.—Corn made a sharp ascent in price today owing chiefly to the fact that offerings were light and that receipts were of a comparative small value. Opening prices, which ranged from a quarter cent to 2 1-2 cents higher, with December $1.37 to $1.37 3-4 and May $1.31 1-2 to $1.32 were followed by a slight reaction but then by a fresh advance.
Oats hardened with corn. After opening a quarter cent to 3-4 cents higher, including May at 77 to 77 1-8c the market was a little before developing new firmness.
Provisions were lifted by the strength of hogs and grain. Trade, though, was light.

BUY RED CROSS SEALS THEY SAVE LIVES

OHIO joined today with all other states of the nation in an appeal to every citizen to help fight tuberculosis by purchasing Red Cross Christmas Seals.

The nurse shown in the picture above is one of several thousand volunteer sales agents who, for the next ten days, will be on duty behind attractively designed Christmas booths in hotels, railroad stations, postoffices and other public places, urging the sale of the little Christmas stickers, which carry a message of Christmas cheer and good health.

Red Cross Christmas Seals are the saviors of war which enable local, state and national organizations to carry on, from year to year, the fight against the "Great White Plague." Each year, just before Christmas, these organizations come to the public asking every person to take a small part in this warfare against the arch-enemy of humanity, by subscribing a small amount for the seals. The seals are only a penny apiece.

For the remainder of the year, the organization is busy battling with the enemy, establishing hospitals, fresh air schools, providing nursing care for the afflicted in their homes and carrying on an educational campaign for the prevention of the disease.

The war has added to the work of the organization. It has resulted in the development of new cases, and a more vigorous campaign must be waged next year than ever before if the death rates from this disease are to be held in check.

You are asked to buy according to your means. Ten seals for every person is the quota for the state. This means 50,000,000 seals.

Here are some of the reasons why you should heed the appeal of the Red Cross Seal sales people:

1. Tuberculosis is the most deadly plague in the country today.
2. Here in Ohio the disease killed over 7,000 persons last year. It killed 150,000 in the nation.
3. Tuberculosis is preventable and curable, and the organizations engaged in the fight against it depend upon you to finance the battle by buying the seals.

OPERA SUCCEEDS BULL FIGHT

Famous Arena in Mexico City Will No Longer Be Scene of Brutal Slaughter.

The Teatro el Toro in Mexico City, once one of the most pretentious of bull fight arenas, is now the home of grand opera as a result of President Carranza's decree that bull fights should cease. Interspersing grand opera, dancers and concert artists have appeared in the arena, and it is stated that these various forms of amusement will be offered until some definite action is taken as to the future of bull fighting.

It was in this arena that what is said to be one of the most remarkable spectacles in the history of the sport was staged. A bull, El Bonito, known as one of the fiercest fighters, on being brought into the arena charged and killed three horses and injured as many men without being touched by the estoc of any matador.

As the bull stood bellowing defiance and with no one apparently willing to attack him, Miguel Ballo, a picador who was a spectator in one of the boxes, leaped unarmed into the inclosure. In his outstretched hand he carried two lumps of sugar, which he nonchalantly offered to the bull. The animal suddenly ceased its bellowing and in a few moments docilely licked the sugar from Ballo's hand. The latter returned unharmed to his box amid the plaudits of the spectators.

Anglo-Irish Tunnel.

Not only is it thought that the long-talked-of tunnel between England and France will be constructed at no remote date, but there is also talk of a tunnel between England and Ireland. This would restore to a slight extent the geographical union that existed between the two countries in one geological age thousands and thousands of years ago. Great Britain and Ireland were then separated only by a great valley.

It is proposed to carry the tunnel from some point on the coast of Lancashire to the nearest point in Antrim or down on the Irish coast, a submarine length of 24 miles. One of the great benefits of the tunnel would be that it would shorten the transatlantic journey by at least 48 hours. It would also help the Irish cattle trade and the shipping of perishable goods, especially fish, to English markets. Estimates of the cost of the proposed tunnel vary from $35,000,000 to $80,000,000.

Had Wooden Legs.

Artificial arms and legs were, it is believed, used in Egypt as early as 700 B. C. They were made by the priests, who were the physicians and surgeons of those days in the land of the Nile.

Schools of Dunkerque.

One of the things that deeply impressed the company of journalists from some twenty different nations who recently visited Dunkerque in a party was the story of the public schools. Dunkerque, although it escaped occupation, was under constant bombardment; the enemy at one time and another had the city under fire by land, sea and air; but, except for a short time in the beginning when the buildings were used for war purposes, the schools of Dunkerque, like those of Reims, continued in session, and new schoolhouses were built. Whenever the city was bombarded, the pupils, big and little, marched to the cellar in orderly procession, and sometimes the entire session was held there. If a schoolhouse was partly shattered, it was repaired at once, and school promptly resumed; nothing, in short, was allowed to interfere with the continuity of the schools of Dunkerque.

Peanut Now Important Crop.

The peanut has accomplished wonders for agricultural development, and has increased production by acres and doubled the value of land in many sections. It similarly helped Alabama through the crisis when the appearance of the weevil played havoc in the cotton fields of that state. It has done well throughout the South, and Virginia, which formerly stood first in its production, has sunk to fifth place.

The peanut oil industry has added to the value of the crop, and this year the total harvest and value were the greatest ever recorded, in spite of a reduction in acreage. The once despised peanut has proved itself a valuable agricultural asset to the South and the country, and the end is not yet.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Everyone Thers Named Levy.

There is a peculiarity about Little Tancook Island, Lunenburg county, Nova Scotia, which is not generally known. Nearly all the residents are named Levy. In fact, only a few years ago all the residents bore that name. In the majority of cases the given or Christian names is taken from the Old Testament. The Levys claim to be direct descendants of the men who followed the fisherman's calling on the shores of Galilee in the time of Christ.

Suggestive Sign.

Railway stations in Sweden at which meals are served are indicated by the simple but suggestive picture of a crossed knife and fork opposite to the name of the station in the time table.

Cheer up! The esteemed United States Senate will have to finish with the peace treaty some day.—Birmingham Age Herald.

MOTHERS OF OHIO

Conneaut, Ohio:—"Always during expectancy I would become so lame that I would be bedfast, my back would be so stiff that I could not move myself. I tried various medicines but not until I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription did I get relief. I consider 'Favorite Prescription' a perfect tonic for the expectant mother, for it not only strengthened me and relieved me of all pain and lameness but I had comparatively no suffering, and my babies were sturdy and strong—absolutely perfect—mentally and physically, which is considered due to the fact that the tonic I took, 'Favorite Prescription,' contained no harmful ingredient."—
MRS. FRANK LUCAS.

Elyria, Ohio:—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an excellent medicine for prospective mothers. It is good to take all during the period and if more women would take it there would be more healthy babies and the mothers' own health would be so much better, too. At one time I was miserable, suffered with sick stomach, could not eat anything and retain it, and I was not feeling good in any way when I began taking the 'Prescription.' It soon stopped the nausea and kept me feeling fine right up to the last, I had practically no suffering, and my baby was strong and healthy."

"I have thought so well of 'Favorite Prescription' ever since that I am always recommending it to my friends and all who have taken it agree with me that it is the very best woman's medicine there is."—

An Appeal to the 31,000,000 People in the Mississippi Valley

WARD of 400,000 of our neighbors—men, women and children—now living in that great and prosperous territory designated as the "North Mississippi Valley State" have been stricken by tuberculosis.

These friends of ours are dying at the rate of approximately 40,000 annually.

Through lack of means to enforce well-established methods for the control of this disease thousands of new victims are being added to the list year by year.

With the funds derived through the sale of Red Cross Seals in former years, volunteer agencies consisting of state and local tuberculosis societies have achieved noteworthy results in bringing about a reduction in the number of annual deaths from tuberculosis. Thousands of wage earners have been restored to health. The lives of large numbers of men, women and children have been saved. An incalculable amount of human misery has been prevented, through the sale of Red Cross Seals at a penny apiece.

But there is much work yet to do, more than many of us realize. Unless we earnestly support this movement with our influence and our dollars this great life saving movement will fail of its object. It must not fail. Far too many lives—lives of our own people—are at stake.

The annual sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals and Health Bonds begins December 1st.

We, therefore, call upon the people of our respective states to give freely—both in money and in helpful service—to this great humanitarian cause.

GAVE THANKS FOR ARMISTICE

Fervent Gratitude to God Was First Thought of the Gallant Defenders of Verdun.

The artillery fire died out, and there was a pause that seemed like the sudden end of the world. Then from the 40 bells, high in the towers of the old cathedral at Verdun, pealed forth those silvery tones that proclaimed again, "Peace on earth." The armistice had come.

Slowly the great doors of the cathedral opened and in rushed 600 allied soldiers. Doctor Maurer of the Red Triangle, says a writer in Association Men, quietly walked to the altar rail and knelt there. Captains, lieutenants and soldiers reached for the bell ropes, and he feared the opportunity for religious service was lost. But they saw the lonely figure and came into the choir space. As he rose all was quiet.

"Boys," he said, "I believe we all want to sing and that we ought to sing the Doxology."

At its close Doctor Maurer raised his hands, and Mohammedans, Catholics, Protestants and Jews bowed their heads and fell on their knees. Amid the ruins 600 soldiers knelt—Mohammedans bumping their heads on the stones, Catholics devoutly crossing themselves, and Jews and Protestants with hands clasped, faces shining and eyes lifted.

Doctor Maurer led in that everwonderful prayer, "Our Father Which Art in Heaven." He then suggested that the Americans sing, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," while the English sang "God Save the King." At the close of the singing the French soldiers pushed forward and sang, as only Frenchmen can sing, the "Marseillaise."

The French general came forward and took Doctor Maurer's hands. "I want to thank you," he said, "for leading these men on this occasion of grace to offer praise to God for the deliverance of France and for the safety of the world."

OLD TURKISH TRADE UNIONS

Guilds Formed of Members of Various Industrial Vocations Common in Constantinople.

Whatever may be the eventual government of Constantinople, the countless guilds or corporations created by members of the various industrial vocations followed by the population will probably respond slowly to the change. In Constantinople, says a writer on Turkish life, every trade and calling has its own union, many of which are of long ancestry: the snaf, or guild, of the shoemakers, for example, is said to have been granted power to judge and punish its own members for public offenses as long ago as the sixteenth century, in return for some service which it then rendered Suleiman the Magnificent. Organized for the common benefit as traders or workers, the members of the guilds are admitted irrespective of race or religion so long as they follow that particular occupation. The business of the organization is conducted in lodges, the officers of which have been held responsible for the good behavior of members. Although future conditions in Constantinople will doubtless modify them, the snafs will probably continue to be a power.

Mystery Solved.

LAY ALL UNDER CONTRIBUTION

Persian Dervishes Demand Alms as a Right, and Simple People Readily Give Up.

A feature of Persian life which illustrates the simple and superstitious nature of the people of the mid-east is their tolerance of the dervishes. These weird, gypsylike beggars infest the cities and annoy the village folk in passing from one place to another, according to their vows of itinerancy. These are not the whirling dervishes of circus fame. Whirling would be too energetic a form of worship for the members of this most ancient leisure class. Their greatest exertion consists of walking slowly and blowing a horn to announce their presence.

The dervish of Persia is known by his begging bowl, conical cap, animal skin cape and club. The weapon, which is usually a stick driven through with nails, is carried conspicuously. It fact, it seems unpleasantly ready for use when its owner calmly demands tribute. It is true that there is small danger of its use, even if alms are refused, but a refusal however polite and apologetic, is sure to arouse the wrath of the dervish. His vocabulary may be unintelligible, but the meaning of his threats and prophecies is usually understood. Fellow citizens of the dervish tribe prefer to make a gift at any cost in order to avoid having the wrath of heaven called down upon them in the masterly language of an experienced heaven invoker.

The dervish makes himself useful to the community honored by his presence by telling fortunes and stories, reciting prayers, selling charms and even curing the sick by blowing his sacred breath on them—all in return for which he turns over to his chief after deducting a living wage.

GIVEN NAMES OF PRESIDENTS

Historical Appellations Bestowed on Summits of Mountain Range in Old Vermont.

Heretofore when one spoke of the presidential range everyone—every New Englander, at least—knew, without further particularizing, that Mount Washington and its attendant summits was the subject, writes Allen Chamberlain in the Boston Evening Transcript.

Henceforth one must needs be more specific, since during the last year a rival presidential range has appeared on the map in Vermont. That region, hitherto generally spoken of as the Bread Loaf Mountain section, lying between Middlebury gap and the Lincoln-Warren pass, was but little known, except in its southerly portion, until the Green Mountain club men ran their Skyline trail through. They found there a maze of unnamed summits grouped as in council, and seemingly worthy of being recognized as individuals of distinction.

Just north of these heights is the rugged mass whose summits have been known for more than half a century as Mounts Abraham and Lincoln. Quite naturally the idea of a new presidential range arose and, with great partisan restraint, four of the neighboring mountains were therefore named Mount Grant, Mount Grover, Mount Grant, Mount Roosevelt and Mount Woodrow Wilson.

114 EGGS A DAY NOW INSTEAD OF 25 A DAY

That Means About $105 Extra Income
Per Month for Mrs. Ropp.

"I have 200 hens, including late pullets not old enough to lay, and had been getting 25 to 30 eggs a day. Then I tried Don Sung in the feed, and am now getting 107 to 114 eggs a day."—
Mrs. Essie B. Ropp, R. R. 2, Little, Ind.
Mrs. Ropp got this increase of 7 dozen eggs a day in the middle of winter. At 50 cents a dozen, 30 days a month, this makes $105 extra income a month. The Don Sung for her 200 hens cost her about $2.50 per month. You can see how well it paid her, and we'll guarantee it will pay you. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying. Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrill-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

"The Wanderer" Tonight.
David Belasco, who is admittedly the greatest of stage producers, who has made stars of unknown talent and who has trained scores of the best American players, was not above devoting his time and attention to personally seeing to the training of the animals used in the big spectacular production, "The Wanderer," which will be seen at the Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night. Belasco devised ways and means for making them perform their actor functions in a lifelike and convincing manner.

As an instance of his ingenuity, he showed the stage manager how to induce the bellowing sheep to follow a shepherd across the stage by the simple device of hanging to the tunic of the laborer in the Palestine fields a bunch of carrots and onions; he in-see this at the Auditorium Wednesday next.

"Maytime"

There are a lot of people in this world who believe that P. T. Barnum, the renowned showman, is resting quietly under the mossy mound in his family plot in a little cemetery in Connecticut, but thousands of theatergoers who have seen the Messrs. Shubert's production of "Maytime," which will be the attraction at the Auditorium Friday night, December 5th, know that the famous P. T. Barnum has returned in real flesh and blood. A sort of reincarnation, they declare. Of course, it isn't P. T. himself, but it looks so much like the bustling creator of the "Great Show on Earth" that even the most skeptical are convinced that the thing can be done and done well. Charles E. Verner, who, for 25 years has played structed the shepherd in the handling of the flocks so the sheep would climb single file up a giant runway, 35 feet above the stage, and then come down another runway in view of the audience, so that it appeared as if the sheep were descending the hills near Jerusalem, and he did many other wonderful things which proved that he is just as great a wizard at training animals as he is in training human beings.

For the sheep are a distinctively big feature in the presentation of "The Wanderer" and to give realism to the scene where Jether, the son of Jesse, of the Prodigal Son punishes him, is first seen and where he decides to leave his father's house, any little slip, or incongruity would spoil everything and make ridiculous that which is designed to have a sublime effect. No matter what impression the acting of the human players may make upon the minds of the audience, when all is said and done, one declares instinctively: "Veren't the sheep wonderful." Seats selling for both days.

Madge Kennedy.
Madge Kennedy, clever Goldwyn star, leading parts in big productions, was selected by Edward P. Temple, the director, to impersonate this character. In the second act of the big musical success, Mr. Verner, is P. T. Barnum to the life. He is the same age today that P. T. was in 1855, the year in which the action of this scene takes place, and his thick, curly hair, big double chin, and jovial expression makes him a perfect likeness of the showman.

Seats for "Maytime" go on sale tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the box office of the Auditorium.

"Lascia"

The Auditorium for Saturday next offers the Universal Special attraction, "Lascia," taken from Frank Desprez famous poem. Do you remember this stirring poem? Do you remember how you thrilled to it as you followed her tragic career? Then you will want to see it humanized on the screen.

When William Farnum starts out to do a thing he does it right or not at all. No one can accuse the William Fox star of shirking anything that is disagreeable. If it will lend itself to his portrayal of a character.

When he works in a picture he goes home after each day's work and goes through the laugh-provoking stunts of the day. This is done to get criticism from his kiddies as well as to develop their sense of comedy.

"They are the keenest critics I have," he says, "and I'm always anxious to hear what they have to say of my work. While I was making 'The Goat' in Los Angeles I had a great many comic roping stunts, dances, falls, and so forth that I rather fancied myself, but I was never sure of them until I had tried them out before the children. If you want to get a good look behind the scenes see Fred Stone in his Aircraft Picture, 'The Goat,' which will be shown at the Alhambra theater today and tomorrow.

Pauline Frederick

Among the motion picture stars of the present day, Pauline Frederick is famed for her beauty and talent, and she has probably one of the largest motion picture followings in the country. ALAS! FOR HUMAN FRAILTY

City Editor Was First Victim of His Own Stern Warning Against the "Booze."

Speaking of booze: A few years ago, when Colorado was as wet as the great Sahara is not, the city editor of a Denver daily was having no considerable trouble in getting out a newspaper the day following each pay night. Finally, in desperation, he issued the following mimeographed letter for distribution to members of the staff:

"Any member of this staff who is found under the influence of liquor, or with any indication of having been drinking during working hours, will be: Fined for the first misdemeanor; suspended for the second; fired unconditionally for the third."

These mimeographed letters were placed on the copy boy's desk with instructions to distribute them as soon as the staff appeared for work the next afternoon.

On the following afternoon there was heard a snort from the office of the society editor, and a usually meek little red-haired beauty came dashing out of her room, waving a piece of paper in her hand. "Where's the city editor?" she demanded. "I'll see why I have to be insulted like this."

The assistant city editor tried to calm her. But nothing would do but that she see the city editor himself.

"Well," said the A. C. E., "it can't be done. He was stewed and we had to send him home."

Needless to say, there was a new city editor the next afternoon, and the staff gleefully drank its way to the stars of prohibition.—Lory A. Jacobs, The Dallas Dispatch, in "Pen."

THE central figure of this great story by Count Leo Tolstoy, most powerful of the Russian dramatists, is Katusha, a beautiful girl who is betrayed by a scion of the royal family. Aside from its entertaining qualities, this picture offers a sidelight on Russian standards that offers a clue to thinking people who have studied recent events in that torn country.

THE ACTORS' FUND AND THE ACTORS' FUND HOME

"We Know What We Are, But We Don't Know What We May Be"
Rodney Richmond

Picture No. 1 shows view of the Actors' Home at Staten Island. No. 2, retired actors playing a friendly game of cribbage. No. 3, Rehearsing one of their old stunts.

In 1900 a subscription list was opened, benefits were given, $71,000 was collected in three weeks with more to follow, and the Actors' Fund Home for the Aged and Retired Actors, at West Brighton, Staten Island, became a reality.

Previously to that came the birth of the Actors' Fund, dating from a meeting of fifteen theatrical managers at the old Union Square Theatre, New York City, on March 12, 1882, and legally incorporated on June 8th of that year by fifty-nine of the foremost managers and actors. Its purpose was, and ever is, to advance, promote, foster, and benefit the condition and welfare of the members of the Fund and other persons belonging to the theatrical profession, to give aid to the indigent sick and bury the destitute dead of the profession in the United States. And the width of its scope was early exemplified by the report at one of the first meetings, stating that relief was granted to a wardrobe woman, an acrobat, a soubrette, a manager and a stage carpenter.

The Home occupies what was originally the Richard Penn Smith estate,

West Brighton, Staten Island, N. Y., situated back on the hills, a spot full of knolls, woods, rich fields, a tiny lake, a territory in all comprising some fourteen acres. And from the upper windows of the house itself one gets an ever-changing view of the harbor and its shipping. The house is of a rather Elizabethan style of architecture, reminiscent of the good old days of Shakespeare, with its outer walls of plaster of soft gray tone cross-beamed by stalwart oak. The land upon which the home is situated, the home itself, together with all its furniture and properties, being the free gift to the Actors' Fund of America, from the kindly disposed public, acting with the managers, actors and actresses of American theatres.

Any member of the theatrical profession, other conditions being complied with, shall be eligible to the Home. The term theatrical profession is held to include all persons wholly dependable upon the business of amusement for their livelihood. No one who may be suffering with a contagious or incurable disease, nor given to alcoholism, all must be unable to undertake further work, men must have reached the age of sixty-five, women fifty-five, and each must be endorsed by two managers and two actors.

Annual benefits, bequests, gifts, and professional subscriptions, the latter among the members of various theatrical companies, have aided in keeping up the general fund and the Home. The annual cost of running both is over $80,000, which includes caring for the ill and poor of the profession and burying the destitute dead.

And this year is another of bitter struggles, privation and want among the people to whom the public turns for the embodiment of that which is theirs to always give, the spirit of youth and a good morrow, the people who ever give us the beautiful land of make-believe, the people when the need is ours who are the first to respond with their help and cheer.

So the Fund must be maintained.

That is the purpose of the present Memorial Day Campaign, terminating December 5, 1919, with special performances in leading theatres throughout the United States. The proceeds are to be devoted entirely to the Actors' Fund.

Snow and Fireflies.

The oriental is always and ever picturesque. The student of the East does not "burn the midnight oil." He works by snow and fireflies. There is an ancient legend about a Chinese student who was too poor to buy oil. Every harvest looks back to a sowing, every fruit to a seed. Each golden-wheated October presupposes a grain-sowing May: logic, commonplace and inevitable, in conditions material. But humanity is not so inclined to recognize the fact, or to appreciate the meaning of the fact in conditions intellectual, moral, human.—Charles F. Thwing.

Lion's Head in Fountains.

The original reason for the choice of a lion's head in public fountains where the water comes out of a lion's mouth was, remarks an exchange, that among the ancient Egyptians the rising of the waters of the Nile, which was the most important event of the year, meaning life and prosperity to the whole nation, always took place when the sun was in the constellation of Leo. The lion's head on fountains is a symbol of the life giving waters of the Nile.

The Industrious Bee.

The bee has two distinct stomachs. In the first it stores away the honey from the flowers until such time as it is ready to yield it up, while the other stomach is used simply and solely for digestion purposes. When the bee is ready to deposit the honey it contracts the muscles of the stomach and the honey is ejected through the mouth.

YEGGS SING AND DANCE FOR BOUND VICTIMS

Omaha, Dec. 1.—Robbers blew the safe of Hayden Brothers' store, one of the largest retail houses here, at midnight Saturday after they had bound and gagged two watchmen and escaped with $63,000 in cash, securities and other valuables.

After satisfying their monetary desires, the thieves feasted on "Dutch lunch" from the grocery department, sang and danced for their captives for three hours, paid each $200 for his trouble, and departed at daylight.

It is believed that the safe-blowers secured themselves in the store during the rush hours Saturday and remained there when the place closed at night. After overcoming the watchmen, they took refuge from the drapery department to muffle the explosions and blew the safe with dynamite.

Joseph Hayden, president of the firm, asserted that the cash in the vault amounted to $30,000. Among the loot also were many liberty bonds belonging to employees.

LIKING G. O. P. GETS INTO HARDING VAN

Republican political leaders were in Columbus Friday and is presumed called on U. S. Senator Warren G. Harding at his headquarters in the Desher Hotel.

A meeting of the Republican county and city committees was called for Saturday and resolutions were adopted unanimously, endorsing Senator Harding for the presidency.

Of course the resolutions could have been passed without the sanction of the Ohio senator even though the second clause read: "We hereby commit ourselves to his support for the presidency of the United States, in the event that he should consent to allow his name to be used as a candidate therefor."

But what did the Marion county representatives tell the Licking county representatives at Columbus Friday and why the undue haste to endorse him by the Licking county committee the next day?

GIANT HEROES OF THE WAR ARE DEMOBILIZED IN SIAM

Elephants, known as engines of great strength in heavy hauling and lifting, were used to great advantage by the British forces during the war. They pulled cannon and supplies through roads impassable to motor trucks and horses. These big brutes were shipped from East Africa and Siam to France. Recently those who survived the war were shipped back home and demobilized just as the horses and dogs and other mute heroes have been.

Among the thousands of applications being received at the Philadelphia navy yard for the purchase of navy blankets, there are many letters of inquiry, a few letters with no check enclosed, and many checks and money orders of insufficient amount.

RECOGNIZE RELATIVE IN PATHE NEWS FILM

Mr. and Mrs. Dan H. Alspach of Fulton avenue attracted the Auditorium theater Sunday and the former was happily surprised when the Pathe Weekly was shown to recognize a relative in a picture of driving a golden spike upon the completion of the San Diego and Arizona railroad, it being that of Dave Pontius, general manager of the road and whose father employed Alspach as a hardware clerk some years ago at Upper Sandusky. Two former schoolmates, one Pontius was also in the audience and recognized him participating in the ceremonies, H. E. Stutz of Columbus and Harry D. Hale of this city.

STUTZ WILL STAGE ELKS' ANNUAL SHOW

H. E. Stutz, manager of the Columbus Producing company, was in the city yesterday and contracted with the Elk minstrel committee to stage the annual entertainment at the Auditorium theater, the dates selected being February 12 and 13. Stutz will furnish new scenery, and costumes together with the music, special orchestration and accessories for the big show which the committee plans to make the best ever staged by the local antiqued herd. It will be a real old fashioned minstrel show the majority of the participants being members of the Elks.

NAVY WINS WITH TWO GOALS FROM FIELD

New York, Dec. 1.—On a slippery, slithering field which made the footing largely a matter of guesswork, the navy eleven sloshed its way to a hard-fought victory over the army at the Polo grounds Saturday afternoon. The score was 6 to 0.

Over 40,000 people, including cabinet members and most of the high ranking officers of both services, sat for two hours through the incessant drizzle while the two teams battled around in the mud. When the whistle blew ending the game it was nearly impossible to see across the field because of the fog and it was quite impossible to distinguish the players apart.

The dependable right foot of King, the hefty navy tackle, gave the mid-dies their victory—their first in seven years against their ancient rivals.

Once in the second period and again in the final quarter King dropped back on the treacherous turf and booted the slippery ball through the goal posts for placement.

DENISON MEN PICKED FOR MYTHICAL ELEVEN

Two Denison men are honored by the Columbus Dispatch in its selection of an All-Ohio team chosen from football players of Ohio colleges. Kull of Denison is first choice for tackle and Tubby Thompson, a former Newark player, is given honorable mention for a guard position. Owens of Denison is selected for one of the end positions on the second team. Speaking of Kull's work the Dispatch says he is "aggressive and clever at breaking through the opposing line and throwing the backs for losses."

W. JEFFERSON FAILS TO SHOW FOR GAME

The Heisey football team did not get into action Sunday afternoon because the east Jefferson Indians cancelled the game. The telegram announcing that the visiting team would not appear, was received at 11 o'clock.

The glass men will play a Coshoccon team at Wehrle park next Sunday afternoon rain or shine, the management announced this morning.

CAR JUST KEPTON MOVING

Lucky for Sleeping Occupants That the Road Had Been Cut Up by Heavy Wagon.

I recall a funny motoring incident that might have turned out decidedly otherwise if it had not been for a mere chance, writes a correspondent. It occurred in the country during the early spring.

A young fellow and his sister were returning in the wee small hours from a dance in a neighboring town. He was driving a motor. They were both very tired and finally they both dropped off to sleep.

It so happened that late the day before a heavy farm wagon had passed that way, leaving deep ruts in the mud, and during the evening these had frozen solid. The car got into these ruts and ran along them with no one guiding it for some time. The tracks turned several corners and finally turned into a farmyard and went into the barn.

The fly turned the corners and followed the tracks into the yard. It was going straight on and would have smashed into the barn door had not the girl waked in time to see the building looming up just in front of them. Realizing the situation immediately, she jammed on the brake and stopped the car a few feet from the closed door.

I am assured that this is a perfectly true story.

KNOWS NO NORTH OR SOUTH

Southern Doughboy Who Fought in France Is Strong for the Appellation "Yank."

The monicker, Yank, is going to stick. Just read what this fellow, who was born south of Mason and Dixon's line, writes:

"I come from a line of 'rebels' who boast that they did not surrender. Until I was quite a husky chap I believed that 'd— Yankee' was one word and 'Republican' its synonym, and knew the 'rebel yell' as a varsity boy knows his college yell. Before the war I wore a slouch hat, rode horseback and shot squirrels. I still say cawn bread, think Dixie should be our national air, that Robert E. Lee was the world's greatest general, and Jefferson Davis, sun, the world's greatest statesman."

"But, speaking for myself and a not overly small bunch of fellow 'rebels,' I am exactly satisfied with the honest, hard-fisted, firm-jawed and seemingly inevitable nickname of Yank, and say, with one of the papers back home:

"Let Yank be the official battle name of our boys, and the 'rebel yell' their official battle cry."

In truth, the South and the North are welded—Stars and Stripes. Cutting the Nation's Tire Bill. "Forty makes of motor tires were submitted to the bureau of standards by the office of the Quartermaster general," writes Thomas H. Uzzell in Everybody's. "They were given laboratory 'durability runs,' after which they were autopsied by the rubber specialists. Their carcasses were cut up and the pieces boiled, roasted, stretched. The results were discouraging. Even the best of them seemed to suffer from improper 'toughening.'"

"So into their little rubber-mill went the experts, with notes furnished them by the tire manufacturers, and proceeded to make up some tire rubber which had the proper degree of toughness. They succeeded. They passed out the word: 'The trouble is that you makers are not sitting your zinc oxid before mixing it with the rubber compound.'"

"The makers began to sift. Better tires resulted. Some $30,000,000 were saved to the government. And today you are enjoying a cut in your tire bill, by getting better tires—a result of that experiment with zinc oxid."

Successful Woman Trapper.

Trapping predatory animals is scarcely the kind of occupation in which a woman might be expected to distinguish herself, even with the great extension of the range of feminine activities to which we have been accustomed lately. Mrs. Ada Tingley of Idaho, is reported, however, by the Northwestern division of the United States biological survey, to be so successful in this employment that her male rivals are finding it hard to keep up with her records. Her victims are mainly coyotes, bob-cats, wolves, lynxes and mountain lions. At 8:30 every morning Mrs. Tingley mounts her cayuse and rides off to her traps, of which she runs six lines, of 50 each. She uses a fish bait prepared by a secret formula. On occasion she can use a .32-caliber rifle with almost perfect accuracy.

Make Big Gun by Shrinking Liner.

In making a 12-inch gun at an eastern arsenal the liner tube, 36 feet long, was finished and rifled before being shrunk into place. Customarily the liner is shrunk and rifled after the shrinkage operation, and this is declared to be the first time a gun of such large size was ever assembled after the tube was finished.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

HEART OF THE DOUGHBOY

Experiences of War Taught Him to Tackle Every Problem From Rock-Bottom Up.

Most of our soldiers went to the other side, young boys. They came back men hardened by fire and experience. They will tell you that they have "figured out a new bunch of dope," or that they have "learned a rule or two about the little game of life." What they mean is that they have gone down to fundamentals and tackled every problem from rock-bottom up.

It was with the understanding that the doughboy is a new man and a problem in himself that Col. Arthur Woods, assistant to the secretary of war, laid out his plan of campaign for the war department's gigantic effort to get jobs for returned service men. "This," he told his assistants, "is not merely an employment idea. It is a new experiment in psychology. We must understand the soldier, the sailor, the marine, right down to the ground, learn their problem minutely and take infinite pains to restore them to civilian life with as little friction and as much celerity as possible."

"These boys are coming home eagerly, but also a little fearfully. We must bridge the gap that they have crossed during 1917 and 1918. America's future lies in her youth. The soldier who fought in France, the sailor who plied the dark waters, and the men who drilled faithfully and patiently at home, must not be left in the lurch after what they have done for us."

The dark room, necessary evil, has always been the one rigid obstacle to the perfect flexibility of the photographic art. Now, however, the operator can carry a complete dark chamber along with him, and develop his exposures when and where he pleases. The "room" described and illustrated in Popular Mechanics magazine packs in a case less than two feet long, about a foot wide, and four inches thick. It opens to a height, in the larger size, of 18 inches in front and 18 inches in back, with walls of light-proof fabric. Elastic cuffs at the side admit the operator's hands, while he looks through a hood in front, equipped with two shutters that are opened by pressure on the hood, and instantly closes on release. Trays and plates are inserted through a ruby-glassed door in the top.

Poisoned by Ink.

Behind the scenes at the Globe theater, where, to the delight of all playgoers, Miss Violet Vanbrugh has scored another wonderful success in "Trimmed in Scarlet," the famous actress told me this amusing story of her early days.

"We were playing 'Romeo and Juliet' on tour," she said, "and one night in the poison scene, Juliet found herself without a phial. The audience was waiting, and in despair she snatched an ink-bottle from the stage carpenter, and gasping 'Is it empty?' rushed on."

"But when the hapless lady raised the bottle to her lips and tipped it downwards, a stream of ink descended over her chin and down her white dress. The house yelled at the comical sight."—London Tit-Bits.

No More Shiny Domes.

After the wonders which we have seen worked for the soldiers who suffered disfigurement during the war, it is not surprising that plastic surgeons are turning their attention to improving civilians also. Ugly noses, projecting ears, harelips and all sorts of other obstacles to good looks will probably be easily corrected in the not-far-away future. The most interesting thing along this line which has been recently discovered is that no one need suffer from baldness any more. By grafting a piece of skin from some part of the head where hair is still growing onto the bald patch, a new covering is said to be insured.

Fiji Fashions.

Mr. R. W. Dalton, in his report of the trade of the Fiji Islands, says: "Shirts are gradually gaining in popularity among the Fijians. All kinds of soft tennis shirts, with collar and pocket or collar and two pockets sell freely. These shirts are usually worn for dressy occasions, when the natives are generally clothed in white or cream. There is an increasing demand for khaki shorts and trousers. The shorts are either plain or with buckle knees and are being worn by Fijian men beneath or instead of a loin cloth. There is also a large sale for umbrellas."

Victories of Every Day.

There are great victories and struggles and noble acts of heroism done every day—in nooks and corners, and in little households, and in men's and women's hearts—any one of which might reconcile the sternest man to such a world, and fill him with belief and hope in it.—Dickens.

Well, Why?

Why is it that the man who has his picture taken standing beside a vase of flowers set on a table covered with a lace dolly is always the man who is reported to the police and the newspapers by his wife as among those missing?

LARGE RETURNS FROM MINT

United States Supplies Bulk of Peppermint Oil for the World.

The bulk of the peppermint oil of the world is produced on the neck lands of southwestern Michigan and a few counties of northern Indiana. The total yearly product is estimated at 500,000 pounds. There are two varieties of peppermint, the American and the English or Mitchem. The latter has almost superseded the American, being better adapted to our soil and climate, and favored by the trade. It is also harder and yields larger crops.

The ideal mint farm is one having both high land and muck soil, which is a distinct advantage on account of the rotation and humus in the soil, decayed vegetation being essential to the peppermint crop. By the use of proper amounts and kinds of commercial fertilizer, large crops of mint can be grown for many years in succession on the same ground. The mint plant, after the oil is removed, makes a very desirable feed for live stock, returning about the same amount of food value as an acre of ordinary meadow land, besides the oil. Thus two profits are harvested from one acre of peppermint.

An acre of peppermint will yield from 20 to 60 pounds of oil, while a second cutting will yield from six to 20 pounds extra. The farmer needs no extra equipment to grow this crop than found on the ordinary farm except a small still to refine the oil. In Michigan and Indiana from 20 to 100 farmers co-operate in the operation of stills, handling from 50 to 100 acres of peppermint in the one mill. It is now a large industry.

STILL USE ST. BERNARDS

Tunnels, However, Have Greatly Decreased His Importance in the Alps.

Although the tunnels which now connect Switzerland with Italy have greatly decreased the importance of the St. Bernard and other passes, especially during the eight months of snow, it is still deemed advisable to employ St. Bernard dogs. It is no longer customary, however, to send out the dogs alone with baskets of food and drink; a man always accompanies them. These dogs are not really of the famous old St. Bernard breed. That originated in the fourteenth century, through a cross between a shepherd dog from Wales and a Scandinavian dog whose parents were a Great Dane and a Pyrenean mastiff. The last pure descendant of this tribe was buried under an avalanche in 1816. Fortunately, there were found subsequently at Martigny and on the Simplon pass a few dogs which, by crossing with mates from Wales, yielded the modern St. Bernard dog, which is physically even stronger than his medieval namesake, and shares most of his traits.

Cattle Eat "Rubber Cakes."

Experiments at Singapore have shown that a feeding cake for cattle and other stock can be produced from the residue of Para rubber seed after the extraction of an oil comparing favorably with linseed oil.

Even those who believe every man has his price will agree that he isn't as cheap as he used to be.
